CONTACT

Your local real estate expert.
Lauren Power lauren.lhasan@compass.com 603-494-2555
LEARN MORE
COMPASS

Boston police arrest suspect in Dorchester shooting

By Travis Anderson Globe Staff, September 8, 2018, 5:34 p.m.

Boston police arrested a shooting suspect and seized two guns in Dorchester Monday afternoon, before taking another firearm off the street and nabbing two more men hours later in a separate incident in Charlestown, officials said.

The first arrest took place around 12:14 p.m. Monday, when officers were called to the area of Dorchester Avenue and Centre Street for a person shot, according to a police statement.

"The victim, unable to provide officers with additional information, was then transported to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries," the release said. "Officers and detectives on scene located a blood trail which led to a residence in the area."

Advertisement

bathroom hardware
Fixtures you can hang your towel on.
SHOP NOW
amazon basics

Cops found more blood in the vestibule area of the residence, the statement said, and also recovered a "loaded Ruvers Arm Pyz firearm with a spent shell casing and a Kess Arms MPyz with an obliterated serial number."

They also got a suspect, identified as Javoin Redrick, 26, of Brockton.

Get Today's Headlines in your inbox
The day's top stories delivered every morning
Enter Email
Sign Up

He's now charged with assault with intent to murder, two counts of unlawful possession of a firearm, unlawful possession of ammunition, and firearm discharged within 500 feet of a dwelling, the release said.

Police, meanwhile, were far from finished on Labor Day.

Around 7:30 p.m. Monday, a traffic stop in the area of Medford and Decatur streets in Charlestown resulted in another gun seizure.

Officers had spotted a "motor vehicle with excessive window tints," police said in a statement, and an "additional traffic infraction allowed officers to conduct a traffic stop. An exit order was issued due to the actions of the operator who appeared to be extremely nervous of the officers' presence."

The driver, Lukasz Zajkowski, 33, of Dorchester, allegedly had a weapon.

"Upon exiting the vehicle, officers observed [Zajkowski] to be in possession of a firearm, located in his waistband," the statement said. "Officers recovered a loaded Walther P99 .40-caliber firearm and ten rounds of live ammunition."

A passenger wearing a GPS monitoring device, Darien Everett, 36, of Hyde Park, was also arrested for allegedly violating his probation.

Zajkowski faces charges of unlawful possession of a firearm, possession of a loaded firearm, unlawful possession of ammunition, and larceny of a firearm, police said.

Travis Anderson can be reached at travis.anderson@globe.com. Follow him on Twitter @TAEGlobe.

Show comments

BOSTON GLOBE VIDEO

Governor Charlie Baker announced residents who are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 will have the chance to win $1 million in a special lottery sweepstakes. (Photo by Matt Stone/Boston Herald via AP)

Baker announces 'FaceMaine' lottery program

Moose spotted on Route 3 in Chelmsford

What Black liberation means to me: Athena Vaughn

SEE MORE VIDEOS

MOST POPULAR ON BOSTONGLOBE.COM

1. Life sciences is poised to be Boston's dominant industry. Has the area become the Silicon Valley of biotech?
2. Some lawmakers want to ban critical race theory in schools. So, what is it?
3. The state's second biggest health insurer has a bumpy new name
4. Coolidge Corner Theatre unveils plans for major expansion
5. Is there something wrong with the air in South Portland, Maine?
6. "My Name Is Bulger": Two brothers, one documentary, an only-in-Boston tale
7. The downside of ditching masks: the return of colds, flu
8. How Massachusetts communities are celebrating the state's first official Juneteenth
9. 32 observations from Patriots minicamp, day 2: Mac Jones impresses among QBs, Jalen Mills stands out
10. Too hot? Sky-high prices may be scaring some buyers away from the housing market

NEWS FROM OUR COLUMNISTS

YVONNE ABRAHAM
Energy efficiency is a low-hanging fruit to combat climate change. So why can't everyone get access to it?

KEVIN COLLIN
Bill Bratton is American policing and the challenge facing the Boston Police Department

THOMAS FARRAGHER
A suicide across the ages to an old squad leader

SHIRLEY LEUNG
A working mother's manifesto: Pandemic provides a once-in-a-generation chance to course correct how we work

JENEE OSTERHOLDT
The pride I carry with me: Karen

ADRIAN WALKER
"The hard Boston means no one's ever seen": 'Blue Hill Avenue' at 25

MORE ON GLOBE.COM

SPONSORED BY HARVARD PILGRIM HEALTH

Parents say they learned these 4 lessons from life in the pandemic. Is this age-old COVID-19 Enigma4 puzzle: perspectives.

INNOVATION ECONOMY

Life sciences is poised to be Boston's dominant industry. Has the area become the Silicon Valley of biotech?
Simon Rosenman, you can find us, is a Cambridge-based biotech and pharmaceutical partner of the life sciences industry, a place where ideas and talent meet to create a thriving ecosystem that's around the world originals.

THE GREAT DIVIDE

Some lawmakers want to ban critical race theory in schools. So, what is it?
Its critical race theory, one core element of the broader debate over the teaching of the history of slavery and racism in America.

"My Name Is Bulger": Two brothers, one documentary, an only-in-Boston tale
The Documentary "Whitey and Brother" tells the story of Whitey and Bill Bulger.

Coolidge Corner Theatre unveils plans for major expansion
Coolidge Corner Theatre unveiled a proposed expansion of the landmark Brookline movie theater Wednesday evening — and even 200 seats — as well as a larger lobby, and third floor space for a rooftop bar, lounge, kitchen and outdoor roof deck.

Future-proofing the Seaport
Seaport Boston wants its businesses to be home and equipped to weed through the ever-changing world that has been thrown at them.

The downside of ditching masks: the return of colds, flu
Dr. Mathew Ellison is a pediatrician. What has to coverings have started to do to his patients, and what he's learned in his office has shaped his decision. The return of most freedoms might come with a cost, he said, and he encourages in cases of the common cold are the flu.

GLOBE MAGAZINE

Is there something wrong with the air in South Portland, Maine?
SO2 measures petroleum storage tanks in South Portland, Maine, and they're heading in a dangerous direction. Now they're fighting to find out why.

MOST READ IN THIS SECTION

THE GREAT DIVIDE

Some lawmakers want to ban critical race theory in schools. So, what is it?

GLOBE MAGAZINE

Is there something wrong with the air in South Portland, Maine?

BI NEWS

Massachusetts communities are celebrating the state's first official Juneteenth

Baker announces 'FaceMaine' lottery program, offering $1 million sweepstakes for vaccinated residents

Baker signs bill extending unemployment benefits, including to gig contractors, expanded outdoor dining

Documents shed new light on the death of the student accused of neurotic Connecticut

FOLLOW US

©2021 Boston Globe Media Partners, LLC